Wednesday, October 20th
9.30am to 12.30pm

Helping parents to understand how to support girls on the autism spectrum.

It is widely accepted that girls are often “missed” in terms of diagnosis of autism and may be facing additional challenges. While every girl with autism is unique, many share certain experiences and may appear to be more aware of the need to socialise, whilst masking underlying issues in order to be socially accepted by their peers.
